FULLMER LEGACY FOUNDATION

FEBRUARY IS A MONTH TO CELEBRATE HEART AND WE SEE IT EVERY DAY IN OUR GYM.

Our Mission

The Fullmer Legacy Foundation empowers underserved youth through mentorship, education, and physical wellness. Rooted in discipline, resilience, and character, we provide free access to structured boxing programs, life-skills training, and community-based support in a safe, inclusive environment at the Fullmer Legacy Center.

Financial Education Night

The Financial Education Night hosted by Goldenwest Credit Union was very informative and helpful for the parents and kids that joined us!

Upcoming Events

March 20-21: Utah State Golden Gloves Tournament

April 17-18: RMGG Regional Tournament

Friends of Fullmer Wall

The Friends of Fullmer Wall at the Fullmer Legacy Center is a lasting tribute to the strength, resilience, and community spirit that defines the Fullmer Legacy. These ceramic tiles were part of the original Fullmer Legacy Center.

Tiles are available for $100 minimum donation. It can feature your name, company, or be a gift to someone you love!

Leave your mark, become a part of the story, and support the Fullmer Legacy Foundation!

Contact Ted or Elizabeth at 385-400-8282 for more information.

Boxer Highlight – Meet Kat Lopez

Strength. Discipline. Heart.

Kat is 23 years old. She won her first fight in December with less than 24 hour notice.

“You’re not always gonna have motivation. I might not always be motivated to come but I’m disciplined for sure. That what boxing is.”

“Life’s not easy. It teaches me discipline. It teaches me mental strength. And I love it.”

“My dad brought me here to Fullmer’s boxing gym and I kinda just fell in love with it.”

“Boxing has helped me become a better person”

“I love what it’s done for me.”

“A thing I’ve learned about myself is I am strong mentally and physically. I just love to work hard.”

Why We Love Fullmer Boxing

At Fullmer Boxing, love doesn't look like balloons or roses.

It looks like showing up every day.

It looks like discipline when motivation fades.

It looks like coaches who believe in you before you believe in yourself.

For our athletes, this gym is a place to belong, to grow stronger, and to learn who they are becoming.

That's why we love Fullmer Boxing - because it builds confidence, character, and community, one round at a time.

Thank you for being part of this community.
