Anniversary of Gene Fullmer's Title Victory

Sixty-nine years ago, on January 2, 1957, Gene Fullmer won the Middleweight Championship of the World, beating legendary Sugar Ray Robinson via a unanimous decision over 15 rounds at Madison Square Garden in New York. Fullmer scored a knockdown in the seventh round. This victory put Utah on the map and began the Fullmer Brothers Legacy.

That legacy—built by Gene and his brothers, Jay and Don—lives on today in this gym. It is the foundation of our continued commitment to the community and our mission to provide a safe, welcoming place where kids can build resilience, confidence, and character.

Boxer Highlight – Meet Cruz Sosa

Cruz is 17 years old and has been boxing with us for 3 years. He is a hard worker who hopes to go to nationals when he turns 18.

“As soon as I started boxing, I felt my whole demeanor change.”

“I felt more confident walking anywhere”

“If you keep showing up, progress will always show, as long as you’re training and not goofing off.”

“Its the loneliest sport in the world, but when you have friends and teammates inside the gym, it makes it feel a lot better.”
